VOGEL MURDER IS CONFESSED

SELLS AND COX BOTH ACCUSED

Suspect Sligh, Under Arrest, Divulges Alleged Plot to Detectives

His Pal and Nurse Planned Couple's Death, He Says

By Associated Press.

LOS ANGELES, March 3.—Charles E. Sligh, confessed robber, declared this afternoon, according to police officers, that the murder of Jacob Vogel, a Fruitvale banker, and his wife, February 11, was planned by A. L. Sells, his alleged partner in crime, and M. E. Cox, a man nurse, now under arrest in Oakland. The statement was made to a Los Angeles central office detective, who subjected Sligh to a long examination.

SLIGH DENIES PART.

Sligh denied that he had any part in the Vogel crime. He asserted that Sells planned it at the house of Cox, who had been employed at the Vogel home, but that he had refused to participate, coming instead to Los Angeles with his bride on February 9th, two days before the aged couple were beaten to death in their residence.

Sligh's statement today amplified admissions he is alleged to have made last Sunday in which he had refused to say directly who was involved in the murder.

Sells also was subjected to close questioning, but the officers declared he had maintained silence, contenting himself merely with the declaration that if he had the chance he would kill Sligh because he "is a weak sister."

Oakland Gets Five More Conventions

The following conventions for Oakland during the month of March were announced by the Chamber of Commerce: The National Federation of State Teachers' Associations, National Association of Teachers' Agencies, State High School Inspectors' Association, City Normal School Association, Educational Press Association of America. This brings the total of conventions to be held in Oakland to 15 in the month.

MASS MEETING TO CONSIDER BOND ISSUE IS CALLED

Speakers on both sides of the question will explain the $1,000,000 exposition bond issue to be voted on March 19 from every possible angle at a monster mass-meeting to be held in the municipal auditorium at 2 o'clock on the afternoon of Sunday, March 7.

The details of the big meeting are being perfected by members of the executive committee of the business men's campaign committee. Speakers for the meeting have not yet been selected and will not be announced until tomorrow. The presiding officer has not been chosen.

It is estimated that 10,000 seats can be provided for those who will attend the meeting. Commissioner of Public Works Harry S. Anderson has agreed to make special arrangements in the arena of the big auditorium, whereby at least this number may be accommodated. The best speaker representing the leadership of both sides of the exposition bond argument will be chosen to talk at the meeting.

BOND BATTLE BEGINS IN EARNEST

A united campaign committee, with both men and women in the ranks, today began in earnest the fight for the successful issue of the Exposition election of March 19. Men and women from all parts of the county, leaders in their various walks of life, have combined for the purpose of winning the bond issue now and election day.

The "Minute Men," organized at yesterday's luncheon in the Hotel Oakland, spent the day in perfecting their organization. New recruits are being added to the list of those enrolled hourly. Officers are to be elected, and a vigorous campaign mapped out. The "Minute Men" plan to make a house-to-house and "button-holing" campaign, as well as caring for the "militant work" of the bond fight.

Friedman's progressive business men are in line. At a meeting of the Pleasant Valley Improvement Club, last night, the members went on record as unanimously favoring the bonds. Not a vote was cast against the resolution. Percy Wood was appointed chairman of a committee of the club to make a house-to-house canvass throughout Piedmont. At the last election, 775 voters out of 899 in this district voted to the police. Members of the improvement club promise to get out an equal number of voters at the bond election. The Pleasant Valley Improvement Club is the youngest organization of the kind in Piedmont.

CAMPAIN WITH WOMEN. Mrs. L. C. Grasser, 2133 High street, a member of the women's committee of one hundred, has already begun her campaign of education among the women. She is a speaker yesterday at a meeting of the Women's Municipal League of Seward terrace. Mrs. C. A. Brasian, president of the organization, gave a hearty endorsement of the bonds.

"We must pass the bonds," she said, taking the floor after Mrs. Grasser had closed her remarks. "The honor of Alameda county is at stake. We women must work for the passage of these bonds. It is our duty to work for them as well as to vote for them."

Members of the women's executive committee of the women's committee of one hundred, met at the Hotel Oakland at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon and discussed arrangements for the banquet to be given in their honor by the business men's campaign committee on March 19. Cards with the facts about the exposition bonds are being distributed by the campaign committee. They read as follows:

1.—The $1,000,000 in bonds to be voted on March 19 permits Alameda county to purchase $1,000,000—non-assessable capital stock—in the Panama-Pacific International exposition.

2.—San Francisco voted $5,000,000 as a gift to the exposition; the state of California made a gift of $5,000,000 to the exposition.

STOREY IN JAIL; WIFE FAINTS

Roosevelt's Critic Collapses When Husband Appears in Court

Finds Spouse Acting in Love Playlet With Mrs. Long

SAN FRANCISCO, March 3.—Mrs. Sarina Storey, in Police Judge Oppenheim's court this morning, on seeing her husband, Frank de Raines Storey, in the custody of a policeman, shrieked and fell forward in a faint. She was several moments coming out of the swoon after she had been carried into the judge's chambers.

Storey was arraigned on the charge of abandonment and neglect, his wife standing almost by his side. No word was exchanged between them. The defendant was calm and collected after he had been released on a local circuit. The manager was after him as early as 8 a. m.

Before he left the city prison for court he had placed his signature to a contract for $500 a week to appear on a local circuit. The manager was after him as early as 8 a. m.

STOREY IN TROUBLE. Frank de Raines Storey, petted idol of a doting and wealthy mother, globe trotter, lawyer, much-married man and last, but surely not least, an actor, has seen every nook and corner of the world, but he never is known to have been in jail before.

This pleasant surprise was saved for him until he reached San Francisco. He spent last night in the San Francisco city jail because his wife declared that he has neglected to provide for her.

The wife in question is Mrs. Sarina F. Storey, she of the Egyptian surroundings and the oft-quoted fame of having criticised Colonel Roosevelt for his Guildhall speech on Egypt.

Real drama, the kind that is staged and not that which is cent-a-word fictionists use in building up an alluring and lurid climax, preceded the climax of last night. It all happened at the Republic Theater in San Francisco. Enter Mrs. Georgia Bogue Long, society woman and wife of Dr. Harry E. Long, wealthy syrup manufacturer, whom she recently tried to divorce, as understood to the leading woman.

Student for Ministry Is Shot for Burglar

ROCHESTER, N. H., March 3.—Walter Marston, a young theological student, was shot and probably fatally wounded while trying to break into the office of the Gentle Manufacturing Company last night. The night watchman said he found Marston ransacking the office and fired when the young man advanced towards him with a revolver. Marston, the police stated, admitted he was looking for money. They said that from the few words he was able to speak, it appeared that he was driven desperate by the need of money to continue his studies for the ministry. He is 23 years old and has filled pulpits temporarily in several places.

Dual Personality Is Clew; Captain of Inspectors May Be Shadowing Himself

Chief of Police Walter J. Petersen (inset, top), who was mysteriously missing this morning, was mysteriously missing this morning. Sergeant Joseph Havens, private secretary to the chief, was also mysteriously missing.

Warned with saying "I don't know" in response to all queries concerning the chief, the Vogel murderers, the suspects in the city jail, and at other relevant matters, Captain of Inspectors Lou F. Agnew has ordered a talking machine with a disk that will shout "I don't know" as often as he presses a button.

All the inspectors and detectives who are known to be working on the Vogel murder stole stealthily about the city hall corridors today, and every time one of them caught sight of a newspaper reporter he ducked hastily to cover, taking refuge in egress passages and inquisitorial chambers.

One of the detectives escaped by entering the automatic electric service elevator and stopping the car between the tenth and eleventh floors of the city hall. He refused to be dislodged until noon time, when the smell of mulligan stew from the city jail caused him to come forth.

The appearance of a newspaperman was the signal for general dispersion on the part of all members of the plain clothes detail, while a photographer caused a panic.

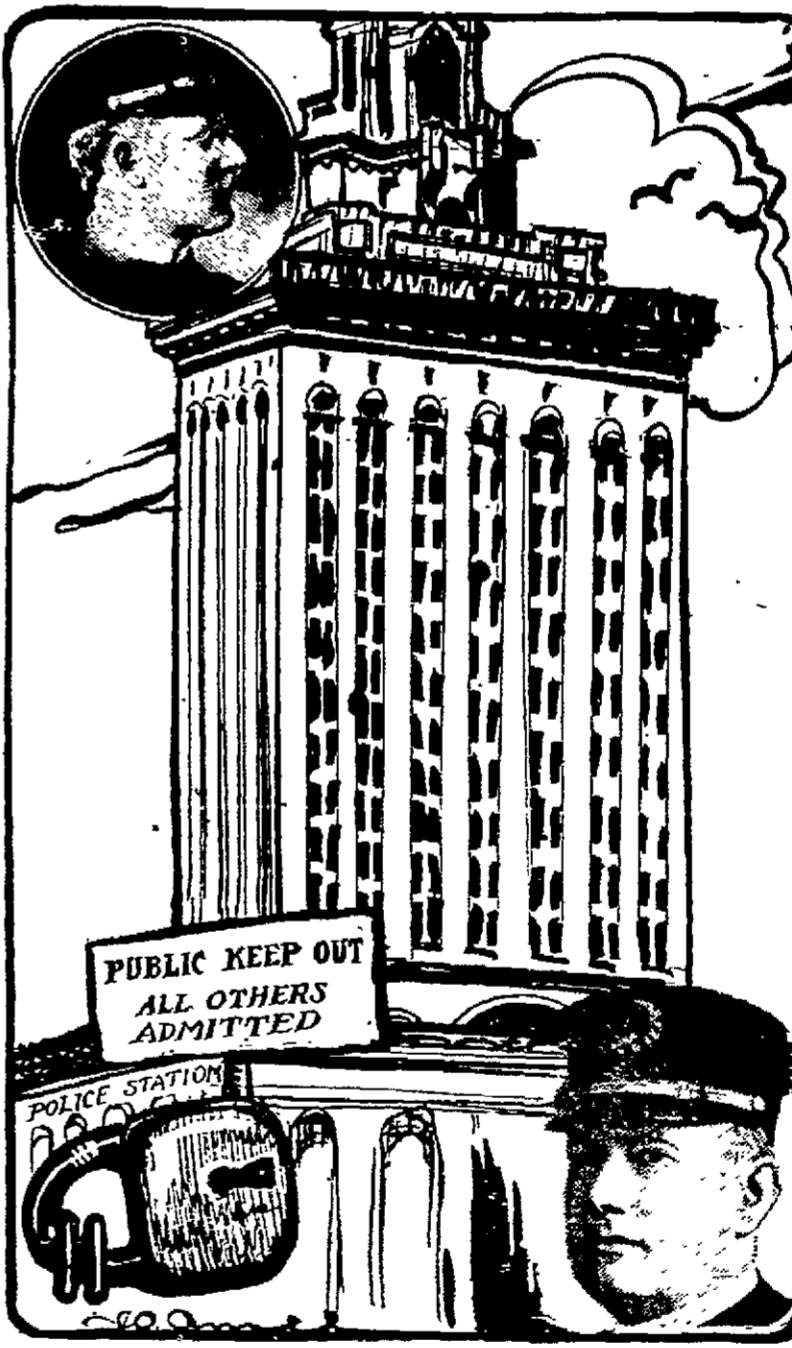

It was rumored that Chief Petersen was ill, and that Sergeant Havens had been detailed as a special nurse. Mrs. Petersen denied that the chief was ill when she was asked for information over the telephone. She was unwilling to give any further testimony.

Finding that the police chief and his secretary were gone, and the doors locked, the newspapermen took to the streets. "But why are you here?" they demanded. Agnew was unable to explain.

CHIEF IN LOS ANGELES? Accustomed to obtain their information as to the doings of the Oakland police from San Francisco, Washington, D. C., the Hotel Oakland, the county offices, and the British foreign office, the reporters on the police "beat" hastened to communicate with possible sources of information. It was finally learned that a man wearing false whiskers and a pair of goggles "cheaters" had boarded the night train for Los Angeles. Newsboys at the train station, however, reported that the chief had been seen departing from the city hall. Nobody at the city hall was willing to take the responsibility of either affirming or denying this. It remains a mystery.

There was also a rumor that the chief had departed from Oakland to avoid expressing his opinion of citizens of Oakland who divulged police secrets.

SENATE HAS MARSHALL UP AT 5

Vice-President Wakened Before Dawn to End Deadlock

Rivers and Harbors Bill Put Through at Day-break

WASHINGTON, March 3.—President Wilson today practically decided to abandon his contemplated trip to the Panama canal in July, because of the action of Congress in eliminating from the legislative and executive bill the appropriation for the celebration of the centennial opening of the canal. He still is undecided about the trip to San Francisco this month.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—At 6:37 a. m. today the Senate passed without amendment the river and harbor bill, the last of the big supply bills to come before it, and then recessed until 11 o'clock. It was only by taking the unprecedented step of arousing the vice-president and requesting his attendance, that a quorum was obtained to pass the bill. Shortly after 4 o'clock Senator Oliver raised the point of no quorum in order to get full consideration for an amendment authorizing a new demand in the Pittsburgh harbor.

Only forty-six Senators could be found and two more were needed to make a quorum. A motion was made and carried for the issuance of warrants for the arrest of absentees. Senator Bryan, temporarily in the chair, declined to sign the warrants on the ground that they could be signed by the vice-president or president pro tempore, Senator Clarke.

MOVE TO CALL HIM. After a parliamentary wrangle, however, Senator Stone moved that the vice-president be requested to attend. This was carried, and the vice-president was roused from his bed about 5 o'clock. Before he arrived, however, Senators Nelson, Page and Dillingham reported and made a quorum. The vice-president, however, resumed the chair.

The Sixty-third Congress swung into the last twenty-four hours of its life today confronted with a mass and jumble of work which must be done before noon tomorrow. Both House and Senate will be in practically continuous session until adjournment. One by one the accumulation of bills and resolutions was being disposed of and sent to the White House for President Wilson's signature, but the closing hours were not without threats of failure for some measures.

The House and Senate conferees were deadlocked over the rural credits amendment to the agriculture appropriation bill; there was likewise a deadlock over the railway mail pay provisions in the postoffice bill. Ultimatums to abandon the disputed points or let the bills fail were being exchanged between the conferring sides. No difference appeared in the other large bills which are not sure to be composed.

ADMINISTRATION LOSSES. So much work on the appropriation bills remained to be done

CHIEF DISAPPEARS; SECRETARY ALSO

Police Department Has Mystery in Itself Now to Solve.

information which the police thought they had bottled up.

"There is nothing to give out on the Vogel murder," declared Chief Petersen yesterday.

He had questioned Marion E. Cox, the trained nurse who was arrested on information furnished in Los Angeles from Charles Sells, who was arrested here and turned over to the Los Angeles police to be questioned. He had in his possession information that Sells had stated that Cox had given information concerning the alleged murder of Jacob Vogel and his wife in East Oakland. They had information that Cox had worked as a nurse for a family living within three blocks of the Vogel home, and that this family was on terms of intimate friendship with the Vogels.

But the chief thought he had this information "bottled up." He was amazed to find it detailed at length in the evening papers. It was suggested that that was the reason he had left town.

WHAT OTHERS SAY.

There was another theory. The chief had made heroic efforts last night to suppress the fact that after one of his corporals had effected the capture of two pickpockets he lost one of them while on the way to the city prison, having failed to handcuff them together. The chief refused to give information as to the capture, and replied with a growl to all queries. But the information was obtained from persons who had nothing to conceal. They were not connected with the police department, have really obtained some information from Marion Cox, the trained nurse, now occupying a cell in the detention department of the city prison. Cox was systematically drilled for many hours. It is thought that it would be surprising if he has not made some disclosures.

There is a theory on the part of the board of education that Petersen was unwilling to trust the information he possesses to any of his subordinates and to Los Angeles himself. The city auditor's office is of the opinion that the chief has clues that may help the Los Angeles police to break down Sells and Silgh still further and make them confess.

A rumor is current in the department that Petersen actually has information that may lead to clearing the mystery. Mayor Mott refused to express an opinion as to the activities of the police, evening himself with the statement that the chief probably knows what he is doing.

City Electrician George Babcock and his assistant, George Tudhope, who installed the telephone system in the city hall connecting the offices of chief of police to the various rooms, refused to be interviewed today. He admitted, however, that the chief knew as much about the murder as any one in the present room or anywhere else in the building.

One hypothesis very popular in the treasurer's office is that as Petersen still retains the rank of captain of inspectors, as well as chief of police, he is sure to be doing something that will rebound to the credit of the city.

LATER.—It is reported at headquarters that Private Secretary Joseph Havens had returned to this office this afternoon.

that administration leaders did not hope to see any of the Democratic legislation program passed. They expected the ship bill, the Philippine bill and other measures next Congress. Senators Root, Burton, Smoot and Lodge, who led the Republican opposition to the ship bill, arranged to watch the closing hours of the Senate to meet any attempt to pass the bill when the opposition was not watchful.

At daylight the Senate still was in session after it had struggled throughout the night on the $11,200,000 Indian appropriation bill and scores of nominations, including President Wilson's trade commission appointments. The Indian bill was passed without a record vote. The House was in recess until 10:30 o'clock waiting for the Senate to catch up with the rush of business.

The Senate dropped the Indian bill for a time about midnight to take up nominations. When it came to the Federal Trade Commission, Republicans sprung a surprise by withdrawing their opposition to Will H. Harty of Seattle, Progressive Republican, and fought on the nomination of George Rubie of New Hampshire, a Progressive. Party, with the three Democratic members, was confirmed. The Democrats are: Joseph E. Davies of Wisconsin, Edward N. Hurley of Illinois and W. J. Harris of Georgia.

Rubie will be the first appointee from President Wilson's Friday. Administration leaders today said they did not expect his confirmation at the present session of the Senate.

The Indian bill, as passed, retained the provision for the $200 per capita distribution to the Chocoma Indians.

The Senate, after spending two hours on the conference report on the naval bill, debating the abolition of the picking board, finally accepted it.

Then, in short, the Senate agreed to the report on the legislative bill and the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill, putting two more of the principal supply measures out of the way.

The House agreed to the conference report on the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill, accepting the Senate's provision to pay mileage as usual for traveling expenses of Congressmen, then debated the river and harbor bill, and, after some heated discussion, accepted the Senate amendments and sent that measure to the President.

Meanwhile disputed points in the army, Indian, general deficiency and other bills were being taken up in conference committee.

CHANGE THEIR PLEA.

Ed Nolan and John Hurley this morning changed their plea to guilty and asked that their cases be referred to the probation officer. They were accused of having robbed Dan Voyvodic of a gold watch and fob on Broadway last January. They entered a plea of not guilty and were to be tried March 17, but this morning changed their plea.

MRS. STOREY PUTS HUSBAND IN JAIL

"I'll Have Trouble in Getting Divorce Now," He Laments.

a friend, acted their parts in the audience. Here's the story in detail:

Mrs. Storey, who alleges that her husband deserted her on August 17, 1913, has been seeking her husband since that time. He recently sued her for divorce, alleging desertion. So she arrived in San Francisco Sunday to seek her husband and, incidentally, fight his divorce action, as she says: that she is very, very much in love with him. Mrs. Storey retained F. J. Schell and Albert Johnson as her attorneys. They learned for her that Storey was appearing in a play, "The Bachelor's Dream," at the Republic Theater. His partner, they learned, was Mrs. Long. Their names appeared on the program as Cora Blackwell and Kenneth Wood.

Mrs. Storey, her two attorneys and a friend, attended the performance last night. When the curtain went up on "The Bachelor's Dream" the nervous Mrs. Storey saw a bachelor scene. In the center of which stood a large girl, inclosing a very life-like picture of a demure maiden of the sixties. That picture was Mrs. Long, as was shown when Storey entered, sat on a chair and to all his and purposes went to sleep and dreamed.

WHAT THEN SHE SAW.

Mrs. Long stepped out of the picture frame and her alluring red lips approached those of the supposedly sleeping Storey. The two attorneys and the unnamed friend, however, were not asleep. Mrs. Storey in her seat while the picture of a girl had come to life murmured:

"I wonder if I dare kiss him." Mrs. Storey started to rise, but was told back.

"I haven't kissed him for six months," the vision continued. "Oh, heavens, I haven't kissed him for a year and a half."

This is a groan from the "leading woman." Well, at any rate, the act, with many loving embraces, finally came to an end. But don't think for a moment that the drama was at an end. Oh, no. An hour later Storey was in jail and his friends told that $500 bail was necessary for his release.

After the close of the act and before Storey's arrest, he was asked:

"Are you doing this acting for fun?"

WHY HE TURNED ACTOR.

"I should say not," he answered. "I'm doing it because I am hungry and could get nothing else to do. My wife is doing all she can to hurt me. She has ruined me in my practice of law. She is posing as the injured and deserted woman. I suppose I will have a hard time to get a divorce now. She is actuated by motives of revenge and greed. She started a suit in New York against my mother, who is wealthy, accusing her of alienating my affections. She does not want me to get a divorce because she hopes of inheriting some of my mother's wealth."

"She ruined, with her stories about me, my New York law practice. I came West, but could get no work. I tried short-story writing, motion picture scenario writing, but all to no avail. So I finally wrote this sketch and Mrs. Long and I landed it."

Mrs. Storey later told her life romance. She is of Jewish parentage and lived in Cairo, Egypt, from her seventh year until she was a young woman, when she went to Paris. At a party in that city she met Storey. "Just another case of love at first sight," Mrs. Storey said. "He asked me to marry him four days after we met. I wanted to be married in Egypt, so we started for Cairo. He said that if we registered at hotels as man and wife that would constitute a marriage. Our marriage took place at Cairo, April 5, 1910."

HAPPY FOR A WHILE.

They were happy for a while after coming to this country. Mrs. Storey said that Storey continued to tell her in January, 1912, that he loved a woman with an income of $50,000 a year and he asked her to permit him to get a divorce. She says that she tried valiantly to accommodate him, but he would not be satisfied with her part of the contract. Then he deserted her, she said, and now he is suing her on the grounds of cruelty and desertion, besides saying that she once tried to commit suicide in Cairo.

Mrs. Storey will file a cross-complaint also alleging cruelty and telling all about the unnamed woman with the $50,000 income yearly.

ALLEGED DRUG SMUGGLERS.

NEW YORK, March 3.—Tonko L. Milic, described as the vice-president of a Peruvian rubber corporation, and Gustave Valdez were arrested here today on the charge of conspiracy to smuggle cocaine and opium in large quantities from Germany and Austria. They were placed under bonds of $50,000 each and committed to the custody of the United States marshal. Milic, also known as Letaria, is alleged to have perfected a scheme for smuggling Peruvian smoking opium in quantities sufficient to net him a profit of $200,000 a year.

PASTOR TO SPEAK.

The Rev. Fred Goodsell, of Turkey, who has just returned to the United States from the war zone and who has letters telling of experiences in Europe, will talk tonight at the First Congregational church at the mid-week meeting. An exceptionally interesting evening is anticipated. Dr. Goodsell thrilled a San Francisco audience a few days ago with his recital of conditions in the war zone.

SUIT IN COURT'S HAND.

Superior Judge J. O. Moncur has taken under advisement the suit for alleged slander brought by Carlo Fracchia against Carlo Acconardi, in which the plaintiff asked for $2000 damages. Fracchia claimed that the defendant had called him an "assassin," greatly to the injury of his reputation in Temescal, where both men reside.

Whether we deserve it or not, we will be the espoused of the nation if we fail to vote the bonds for the up-grade of Exposition stock.

Jackson, Miss.—"I shall feel repaid for writing this letter if I can help any tired, worn-out mother or housekeeper to find health and strength as I have.

"I have a family of five, sew, cook and do my housework and I became very much run-down in health. I had indigestion and stomach pains and headaches. Often I would be in bed for several days at a time, and before I took Vinol I tried too many remedies to mention, without benefit. A friend asked me to try Vinol. I did so and before I had taken one bottle noticed a big improvement. Now I am well and strong and my old-time energy has been restored. Vinol is no superior as a tonic for worn-out, run-down, tired mothers or housekeepers."

MRS. J. N. MELTON, Jackson, Miss.

We ask every tired, care-worn, run-down, nervous man or woman in this vicinity to try Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic without oil, and they too will soon be able to say that Vinol has built them up and made them strong. Remember, we will return your money if it fails to benefit.

THAW ON TRIAL FOR HIS ESCAPE

Five Others Face Charge of Conspiracy for Matteawan Episode.

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, March 3.—Preparations for the trial on Monday of Harry K. Thaw and five others accused of conspiracy in aiding his escape from the state hospital for the criminal insane at Matteawan began today, when fifty subpoenas and notices were sent to witnesses in Dutchess county and to other witnesses who have promised to testify.

The trial will be one of the few outside of federal courts where witnesses will appear from four different states and from two different countries—the United States and Canada.

The state plans to trace the course of the motor car in which Thaw escaped from the time it left a garage in New York until it arrived at Rochester, N. H., and then to follow Thaw on his train journey across the border until he was arrested in Canada. It is expected that it will take not more than three days to present the state's case. Although the defense has given no indication of its plans, it is regarded as probable that Thaw will enter no defense, but will rest on the state's case and the arguments of his attorneys.

AGENCIES UNDER LABOR LAW.
By Associated Press.
OLYMPIA, Wash., March 3.—The Thurston County Superior Court yesterday decided that the initiative anti-employment agency law adopted by the voters of Washington last November applies to teachers' agencies as well as to agencies providing work for common labor. The decision was given in a suit brought by F. W. Huntworth, conducting a teachers' agency in Seattle, who sought to restrain the attorney general from enforcing the law against him.

URGES EXTREME CARE IN ANTI-ORIENTAL BILLS

By Associated Press.
HELENA, Mont., March 3.—A telegram urging caution in regard to the Montana legislature passing a pending bill to prevent white women working in restaurants conducted by Orientals was received here yesterday by Governor S. V. Stewart from Senator Walsh in Washington. Senator Walsh's telegram was:

"At request of Secretary Bryan I am advising you that Japanese ambassador finds some objections to bill pending before legislature forbidding employment of women in restaurants conducted by Orientals. On suggestion from same source beg to urge caution about measure referred to in view of critical state of affairs internationally."

The governor referred the message to the house committee having the measure in charge.

COBBLESTONES MAILED.
REDDING, March 3.—A consignment of cobblestones, 9,999 pounds of them—is being shipped by parcel post from here to Dedrick, Trinity county, thirty miles beyond Weaverville. Though the stones are cobblestones in size, they are not cobblestones in fact, for they are of flint and were shipped here from Norway.

MUTINY PLOT IN BRAZIL FOILED

Sailors of Former Naval Trouble Implicated, Is the Declaration.

By Associated Press.
RIO DE JANEIRO, March 3.—Discovery of a plot which is said to have had as its object the ousting of Nilo Peçanha as governor of the State of Rio Janeiro, has resulted in several arrests. Among those involved are sailors on the battleships Minas Geraes and San Paulo. A raid today is being conducted and it is believed the movement is similar to the naval mutiny of 1910. Official announcement has been made that no officers are involved in the conspiracy, which is considered "a complete failure."

Richard Kirk, a Brazilian visitor, told the Press that the Aero Club, was killed when his machine overturned at a great height while he was reconnoitering over a rebel camp in the State of Ceara.

Sailors on the battleships Minas Geraes and Sao Paulo mutinied on November 22, 1910, murdered four of their officers and bombarded Rio Janeiro. The mutineers asked the government a strongly worded ultimatum demanding an increase in pay and the abolition of corporal punishment and of several other unpopular naval regulations. The movement was believed not to have political significance.

Three days after the mutiny began both chambers of Parliament began resolutions granting amnesty to the sailors involved in the revolt and the mutineers surrendered on November 25.

DROWNED IN ACCIDENT.

TUBA CITY, March 3.—The finding of the body of J. Merin of Woodland, a foreman employed by a wood cutting crew of Knights Landing, by L. Baker late Sunday, disclosed a grim tragedy. Merin, with his partner, whose name was not learned, went out into the flooded river in a row-boat on February 5. After proceeding for several miles a strong current upset the boat, hurled both men into the water. Merin drowned almost immediately, but his partner swam for a tree.

SOUTHERN EXPERT TO HEAD WORKERS

Dr. Milbank Johnston Named as Head of Charity and Correction Body.

FRESNO, Cal., March 3.—Dr. Milbank Johnston, president of the Los Angeles "Charities" Commission, who was nominated for the presidency of the California Association of Charities and Corrections for the ensuing year, will be elected at the dual meeting of the conference today.

Other officers named were Mrs. E. L. Baldwin, San Francisco, first vice-president; E. G. Lickley, Los Angeles, second vice-president; Stuart A. Quisenberry, San Francisco, secretary-treasurer. Places on the executive committee will be filled by Mrs. Cora B. Lewis, Rev. Mr. Glass, Mrs. Mary Workman and Mrs. Benjamin Gold.

John Francis Neyland, chairman of the State Board of Control, in discussion of "State Aid to Children," said: "It is well within the bounds of conservatism to assert that a majority of the people of California today do not know that the State of California annually expends a sum in excess of $450,000 to aid unfortunate children who are left without either one or both parents, included in this majority the board of control has learned by actual experience are many well-disposed people who are active in securing legislation on this and kindred subjects."

CHILDREN NOT CARED FOR.

"The impression seems to be general that the counties are very generous in dealing with dependent children. The fact is that more than 99 per cent of the public money expended in the support of these children comes out of the state treasury and less than 10 per cent out of the county treasuries. It would, therefore, seem but just that in meeting this problem in the future serious attention should be given to devising means of inducing the counties to take up their rightful share of the burden. San Francisco and Alameda counties are the only subdivisions of the state which today attempt to meet their obligation in this respect."

"Many unthinking people have acquired the habit of condemning all the orphanages of the state. Without making the slightest distinction as to the character of the institutions, they hurl charges of indifference and violence. They are not only committing an outrageous wrong against the hundreds of excellent men and women who are devoting themselves to this work, but they are hurting the little unfortunate children who need help most of all, namely, those unfortunate children who are unfortunates because of deformity or untoward circumstances, and who have no chance of being adopted into families."

"No sane man or woman in this day and age will advocate keeping a child in an institution if it can be adopted out into a proper home. But every man and woman who is just and admires unselfish labor is in the interest of others will accord full praise to the men and women who have made many of our orphanages models. No group of people in California today are doing a better work than the directors of the Sacramento orphanage and farm, which today stands at the head of the list of the forty-three orphanages in California receiving those interested in children who wish to become acquainted with the work to be accomplished by the Los Angeles orphan home, the Pasadena training society, sisters. Many of the orphanages are accomplishing excellent results."

"In connection with the orphanages it is also interesting to note that the number of children for whom they are receiving state aid diminished from 4675 in 1904 to 3577 in 1912, and to 2451 in 1914. No more proof should be needed to convince the most exacting person that these children are being placed with the full co-operation of the enlightened institutions."

DEAD MAN'S LETTER MAY WIN $3,000,000

MONTREAL, March 3.—Upon the discovery of an alleged memorandum made by an officer of the Empress of Ireland, now dead, may hinge the entire case of the Canadian Pacific Railway against the owners of the collier Storstad for $3,000,000 damages for the sinking of the Empress of Ireland in the St. Lawrence river last year.

Before the admiralty court yesterday afternoon the owners of the Storstad insisted upon the introduction of a memorandum said to have been found brought from the wreck by the divers. This memorandum, he claimed, was written on a wireless telegraph blank by a third officer. ## PIEDMONT HOMES ARE LOOTED BY BURGLARS

Homes of the wealthy Piedmontese are being guarded, and the Piedmont police are watching every car or automobile entering the city, as the result of wholesale raids on Piedmont mansions by burglars, who, entering several homes this week, capped the climax yesterday by stealing $1200 worth of silverware from the residence of H. J. Tyson, president of the Seaboard National Bank.

The Piedmont thieves, who have systematically raided the hillside homes, are declared each time to have escaped to Oakland. The home of Mrs. Florence Wing, 311 Mountain avenue, also entered by the thieves, was turned topsy-turvy, but little of value taken, and several minor burglaries were reported before the Tyson robbery took place. The Piedmont police believe that the thieves perpetrated the small thefts in the same neighborhood to outline and insure a means of escape to Oakland.

The home of W. A. Starr, San Francisco hay and grain merchant, was invaded immediately before the Tyson robbery. The thieves obtained about $2000 in loot from the two homes. About $1200 in silver was taken from the Tyson home, while the Starr losses are estimated at $500.

SAN LEANDRO, March 3.—Mayor J. J. Gill, City Trustee H. L. Fletcher and D. L. The meeting will be held in the Chamber of Commerce building, Oakland.

DON'T USE SOAP ON YOUR HAIR

When you wash your hair, don't use soap. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle. The best thing to use is just plain purified coconut oil, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, or a few ounces will last the family for months. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in; about a spoonful is all that is required—makes an abundance of creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly and rinses out easily. The hair quickly and evenly, and is fresh looking, bright, fluffy and easy to handle. Beside loosens and takes out every bit of dust, dirt and dandruff.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, March 3.—Many Americans have been induced to ship on British steamers as horse tenders with promises of good pay and a return ticket to America, only to be turned adrift penniless in England or France.

Such vessels run from American ports to England and France with remnants for the allies. The men are assured they will be paid from $15 to $25 for their work and then supplied with a return ticket and an opportunity to work their way back on another steamer.

Upon arriving they often fall to get the money promised and are frequently turned loose to drift for themselves. Sometimes they are given $2.50 and an order for return passage on ships sailing a month hence. Obviously, the man cannot wait and often he offers to work his way home for nothing.

These unfortunate men have been appealing for help to American officials in London. Since November 1, more than 100 have made known their distress. The American relief committee can help only Americans impoverished by the war. It cannot aid men who have come over since the fighting began.

American officials in England and France today are making every effort to discourage Americans from coming into the war zone, lured by promises of shipping agents in America. For years the mistreatment of American seamen coming to Europe on foreign vessels has been the subject of much complaint but since the opening of the war conditions have become much worse. These are evidences of a general understanding between ship officers and shipping agents to fleece unsuspecting and inexperienced men.

RUSSIAN AEROPLANES SAVE TWO REGIMENTS

By Associated Press.

LONDON, March 3.—A brief description of the very efficient work of two Russian aeroplanes is transmitted in a dispatch received here today from Warsaw, Russian Poland. These aeroplanes it is stated saved two Russian regiments of the Twenty-ninth division during the recent Russian retreat in East Prussia. Having taken the heads of the soldiers, the airmen guided them in their retreat through the enemy's lines in safety and by frequent trips to and from the Russian base they kept the column supplied with ammunition.

AUSTRALIAN BOYS GUESTS.

The thirty-five members of the Young Australia League will be the guests of the Home Industry League of California at a luncheon next Thursday in the Palace Hotel, in San Francisco. Major Sidney S. Pixworth, leader of the Columbia Park Boys' Club, will be among the speakers. The lads will come to Oakland on March 15 and will remain through Saturday, March 20. During the time they will enter into various athletic contests with the Oakland school boys, among which will be a field day on March 20.

NEW SENSATIONS IN CLEARY CASE

District Attorney Dissatisfied With Acquittal, Orders Four Arrests.

By Associated Press.

HAVENSTRAW, N. Y., March 3.—Dissatisfied with the recent verdict of William V. Cleary on a charge of having shot and killed his son-in-law, Eugene M. Newland, District Attorney Thomas Gagan has caused the arrest of four men in the hope that Cleary may yet be landed behind prison bars. These arrests, Gagan says, will form a foundation for the further prosecution of Cleary.

The four prisoners are Bernard Fox, who saw the shooting and was a reluctant witness for the state; William Sebold, Charles Ludwig and Harry Hughes. Fox is charged with perjury and the three others were taken on charges of violating the Sullivan law. Before Judge Justice McCabe today, bail of $2000 each was fixed for the others.

SURPRISE IN MOVE.
Gagan's move surprised everybody, apparently, except the slain youth's father and his counsel, who hint that just as they were about to spring a sensation that would open Governor Whitman's eyes Gagan issued his warrants and beat them to it.

What the accused District Attorney is trying to "get" on the acquitted slayer is believed to be evidence for a simple charge of violation of the Sullivan law. Newland, father of the victim, who lodged the charges against Gagan with Governor Whitman, says that the prosecutor hesitated himself only after Paul Straker, counsel for Newman, went to Havenstraw and got several affidavits from persons who had talked with Fox and Hughes.

These persons swore, Newman says, that just before the murder Fox took a revolver out of his saloon safe and went to the village corporation rooms. It was there Cleary shot his son-in-law. About half an hour after the shooting, the affidavits allege, Fox turned the revolver over to Sebold and asked him to give it to Hughes at the saloon, but Sebold, it was said, turned the gun over to Ludwig instead, who took it to the saloon and gave it to Hughes, the bartender.

PERJURY EVIDENCE.

At the inquest before Coroner Leonard, Fox swore, it is now alleged by Gagan, that he didn't know what had become of the revolver. Gagan charges that Fox did know. The gun, in any event, disappeared. Several days afterward Cleary's lawyer handed a revolver, which he said was the one that killed Newman, over to the District Attorney.

Newman declared today that he was prepared to show that it was not Police Chief Ford's revolver, as the defense contended, that discharged the fatal shot. Newman declares Ford has said the gun was in his possession when the shooting occurred.

When Gagan was asked if he had any evidence that the revolver in the case did not belong to Ford, he replied:

"Well, we have our suspicions."

Asked if the arrests were a move against Cleary, he replied:

"Absolutely."

"Do you expect to upset Cleary's acquittal?"

"We couldn't upset that," he returned, "but we are trying to get something else on him."

CANADIANS WHO SHOT DUCK HUNTERS FREED

By Associated Press.

WELLAND, Ont., March 3.—The bill charging manslaughter against a provincial police officer and three Canadian soldiers, who last fall fired upon two American duck hunters, Walter Smith and Charles Dorach, killing Smith and wounding his companion, was dismissed by the Welland county grand jury here last night. The men who were named in the bill are Police Officer Thomas C. Delaney, Corporal Archie Mayo and Privates Leslie Kinsman and E. McIntosh.

The shooting, which resulted in diplomatic correspondence between the United States and Great Britain, occurred on the Niagara river. Smith and Dorach were said to have approached the Canadian shore, which was being guarded by soldiers against a possible invasion of Canada from the American side. The soldiers, according to their own statement, fired when the two men failed to obey an order not to come any nearer.

HEALTH BOARD OFFICIAL OUSTED AFTER INQUIRY

SACRAMENTO, March 3.—Following an extended hearing of charges and testimony of a number of State officials and employees, Civil Service Commissioners Read and Hunter today directed that John H. Leinen, assistant secretary of the State Board of Health, be removed on the ground of untruthfulness.

"It is the result of a long standing conspiracy of certain subordinates in my office and of an employee of the State Board of Health to get me," declared Leinen. "I have been strict and firm and have done my best to develop the department."

Leinen's trial resulted from charges filed by L. V. Boyle, a health board employee, against whom Leinen had made charges of inefficiency. Boyle charged that Leinen, during the Snow regime in 1912, made out a claim of $652.25 for bills incurred by the State Hygienic Laboratory against the fund of the pure food laboratory.

NORTH POLE SHIP TO SERVE U. S. FISHERIES

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, March 3.—The Roosevelt, Admiral Robert E. Peary's Arctic ship, has been sold by her owners, the Arbutus brothers, to John W. Sullivan & Co. It was learned yesterday. The Sullivan Company will refit the former Peary craft with oil-burning machinery, with the understanding, it is said, that she will be taken over by the bureau of fisheries of the department of commerce and labor to be used in connection with the fisheries service in Alaskan waters. It is expected that the Roosevelt will proceed to her station through the Panama canal as soon as the work of refitting her shall have been completed.

DYNAMITE THREAT MADE.

SACRAMENTO, March 3.—That 600 pounds of dynamite is buried along the banks of the Sacramento river to be used in blowing up the Sacramento Coffee Club, city employment offices, newspaper offices and other institutions giving hospitality to the unemployed, is the text of an anonymous letter received by John S. Blair, deputy state labor commissioner.

Not what we think of San Francisco; not what we think of the administration; not what we think of this, that or the other—but what will the nation think of us if we fail to vote the bonds for the purchase of Exposition stock?

Cost, an average of 1 1/2 cents per month on a $1000 assessment.

Dainty, hidden flavors

CRISCO
For Frying—For Shortening
For Cake Making

The dainty flavors of the food itself predominate, because Crisco does not possess the strong, greasy taste of lard or oil. Hidden flavors come forth, dainty shadings of taste that you had no idea were there.

Croquettes, like all foods fried in Crisco have their own true flavor. That "lardy" taste is absent.

Crisco digests with ease. It is a food fat. The "Crisco Process" has made this possible. It delivers the cream; that is, the richest, most digestible solids from vegetable food oils. Think of the cream from milk or the sugar from cane or beets. Then think of the Crisco cream from vegetable oils. Only the "Crisco Process" can deliver Crisco, the new cooking fat.

Have your grocer send you Crisco today. Try it first for frying, then for shortening and cake making.

SUSPECTS IN BOMB PLOT CHARGED

Grand Jury Returns Indictments of Two Anarchists.

NEW YORK, March 3.—Frank Abarno and Charles Carbone, the anarchists accused of plotting a dynamite war against churches and men of wealth, were indicted by a grand jury today charged with placing a lighted bomb in a public place in violation of the penal code. The two men were arrested yesterday after the police had foiled an attempt to explode two bombs in St. Patrick's Cathedral. Emilio Polakani, the young detective, who, under the name of Frank Hald, was taken into the confidence of the anarchists, was the principal witness summoned before the grand jury. The penalty upon conviction may be 10 years in state's prison.

Policemen met in uniform continued today to maintain a watch over St. Patrick's Cathedral and others will be assigned to guard other churches against which attacks were expected. The arrest of Abarno and Carbone ended the first detective assignment of Polakani, 25 years old, a member of the police force for the last year, and until assigned to this case last November, a patrolman on regular duty at an upper East Side station.

Prominent anarchist leaders, among them Emma Goldman, Benjamin Ratman, Raymond Fazio and Carlo Treccani, declared that Abarno and Carbone were unknown to them personally and that their acts could not be attributed to an anarchistic plot against wealthy men and banks, such as the police declared to be the case.

It was several hours after the arrest of Abarno and Carbone that John D. Rockefeller Jr. learned of the alleged plot to kill the more prominent millionaires of this city, including himself, his father, Andrew Carnegie and others. Through his secretary he said he had no comment to make. Andrew Carnegie and Cornelius Vanderbilt also refused to make a statement.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—Howard M. Patterson, a Presbyterian minister among the Indians at Bluff, Utah, has written Secretary Lane that the Red Men in his section "are not nearly so bad as they are painted, and I wish to see them get fair play from the government."

Secretary Lane gave out the letter in connection with the recent Indian disturbances in Utah. Rev. Patterson charged that cattle frequently had been killed and stolen by white men who were malicious to throw blame on the Indians.

RELIEF MEASURE FOR OIL OWNERS PASSED

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The Senate passed last night a relief measure for oil operators in Wyoming and California whose plants would be closed by the recent decision of the Supreme Court in the so-called Mid-West oil case. When the kidneys clog, you must help them flush out the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water, also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then get on their feet. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acid urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Drugists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

MOLASSES CANS HAD OPIUM-FILLED TUBES

Joseph Herrera, 153 Third street, welcomed Sergeant Frank Ahern to his shop last evening with a friendly bow.

"You are mistaken," he said. "We have no opium here. Examine for yourself."

Ahern stationed police at the door and proceeded to examine. He was aided by the state's attorney. Nothing that looked like opium was found.

"What is in those small cans?" demanded Ahern.

"Molasses," explained Herrera. "It is very palatable."

Herrera took a can-opener and removed the top of the can. He poured out some molasses.

"Pour it all out," commanded Ahern. This was done.

"All right," said Ahern. "I guess we're stung."

As an after-thought he examined the molasses can more closely. Sticking up from the middle of the bottom of the can he found a slender tube. This was opened.

It contained opium. Further investigation showed that all the molasses cans were furnished with inner tubes of opium.

Herrera was arrested on a charge of having opium illicitly in his possession.

MRS. LYON'S ACHES AND PAINS

Have All Gone Since Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Terre Hill, Pa.—"Kindly permit me to give you my testimonial in favor of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. When I first began taking it I was suffering from female troubles for some time and had almost all kinds of aches—pains in lower part of back and in sides, and pressing down pains. I could not sleep and had no appetite. Since I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound the aches and pains are all gone and I feel like a new woman. I cannot praise your medicine too highly."—Mrs. AUGUSTUS LYON, Terre Hill, Pa.

It is true that nature and a woman's work has produced the grandest remedy for woman's ills that the world has ever known. From the roots and herbs of the field, Lydia E. Pinkham, forty years ago, gave to womanhood a remedy for their peculiar ills which has proved more efficacious than any other combination of drugs ever compounded, and today Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is recognized from coast to coast as the standard remedy for woman's ills.

In the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., are files containing hundreds of thousands of letters from women seeking health—many of them openly state over their own signatures that they have regained their health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; and in some cases that it has saved them from surgical operations.

EMPLOYED BY CITY FOR QUARTER CENTURY

Patrick McBrien, an aged member of the park department, who has been in the employ of the city for over a quarter of a century, was retired by the city council today at half pay.

The civil service board had recommended that a new rule concerning pensions for superannuated employees be adopted and applied in McBrien's case. This would give him a little over one-third of his recent salary. It was based on the practice of various large corporations.

The commissioners decided not to adopt the new rule until after April 1, when McBrien will be retired, and to pension McBrien at half pay.

EMPLOYED BY CITY FOR QUARTER CENTURY

Patrick McBrien, an aged member of the park department, who has been in the employ of the city for over a quarter of a century, was retired by the city council today at half pay.

The civil service board had recommended that a new rule concerning pensions for superannuated employees be adopted and applied in McBrien's case. This would give him a little over one-third of his recent salary. It was based on the practice of various large corporations.

The commissioners decided not to adopt the new rule until after April 1, when McBrien will be retired, and to pension McBrien at half pay.

IF BACKACHE OR KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat less meat and take a glass of Salts to finish out Kidneys—Drink plenty water.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog, you must help them flush out the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water, also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then get on their feet. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acid urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Drugists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

The time was when travelers from Oakland registered from San Francisco because their city was not known abroad. If the Exposition here is defeated, they will register from anywhere but Oakland because it will be too well known.

Vanity Boxes Hidden in Flowers, Latest; Bouquets Hide Puffs

Lunches at the Oakland yesterday were two attractive affairs, perfectly "turned out." One in a sand-colored suit and small black hat, wore a knot of French flowers at her shoulder, where flowers are worn this season. There was nothing unusual in that, but when luncheon was over she drew a pink carnation from it, and powdered her nose. It is the latest vanity box effect in Vanity Fair.

The flower had a tiny magnifying mirror at the back and its center was a powder puff inverted. After the nose was powdered it was, arranged in the "boudoir" on the shoulder and snatched into place, to the surprised enlightenment of politely interested spectators.

It made one wonder if all the shoulder knots of flowers are thus deceptive, and where vanity boxes may be discovered next. They topped last winter, and were made into locket before that.

This season Miss Jean Wheeler wore an American Beauty rose at the girdle of her evening gown. Between dances, at a ball she caught the center silken petals of the rose and drew them out of their setting, to powder her face with a puff of which they formed the handle. The gold heart of the rose held the powder, and somewhere beneath the velvet petals a mirror mysteriously hidden.

The frank gold and silver boxes that hung from chains are passe. Too obvious. Vanity boxes to be down to the minute are ingeniously concealed. Why, is a mystery since they are so expertly revealed by their wearers. The ingenuity really seems wasted.

THE NEGLECTED EYE

By LILLIAN RUSSELL

(Copyright, 1915, by Lillian Russell)

IN the present age the eye is one of the most neglected parts of the body. This statement is not an exaggeration. In the past, the eye was considered a sacred organ, and its treatment was a matter of great importance. But in the present age, the eye is often neglected, and its health is often sacrificed to the demands of modern life.

This is a mistake. The eye is one of the most important organs of the body, and its health is essential to the health of the whole body. The eye is the window to the soul, and it is the first thing that we see. If the eye is neglected, the whole body will suffer. The eye is the most delicate of organs, and it is the most easily injured. It is the most important of organs, and it is the most neglected. The eye is the most delicate of organs, and it is the most easily injured. It is the most important of organs, and it is the most neglected.

Before the concentration of a large percentage of the country's population in cities and the opening of shops, offices and factories as a result of the spread of the industrial revolution, the eye was in the open. The eye was in the open, and it was the most delicate of organs, and it is the most neglected. The eye is the most delicate of organs, and it is the most easily injured. It is the most important of organs, and it is the most neglected.

Today millions of eyes are forced to look through a narrow slit for long hours upon single objects—the ledger, the legal brief, the delicate piece of machinery of tool, the fast-moving needle, and all these other things which are part of the life of an industrial nation.

Tonight a majority of these same eyes will be fixed just as steadily upon the fine print of the daily newspaper, magazine or book. There is no need of rest except in sleep for these eyes, and almost no opportunity for the exercise that strengthens the nerves and muscles.

The eye that is constantly fixed upon a single object is under a special strain. It has no opportunity for invigorating exercise. Also, frequently the same eye is weakened by the constant direct or indirect glare of the electric light.

An opportunity for rest and exercise is demanded by every eye. Given the chance, it will move from one object to another, and each movement means exercise. That is the reason why the eye which is riveted upon a single object all day should have a chance to exercise by moving about over restful colors and objects.

If given the opportunity the eye will bathe and exercise itself. But customs are making demands upon it which mean special strain without a chance to recuperate and develop.

Look at the eye that is abused. You will see it everywhere. It is dull and lustreless. Its owner is continually squinting and distorting his face. But the eye that is well cared for is beautiful, expressive and attractive.

Of primary importance is the keeping of the eye in condition to render adequate service. If it is in that shape there are fewer headaches and less nervousness. If in condition to properly fill its offices it is beautiful and expressive.

Remember, the eyes are but small in proportion to the rest of the body, but their loss is the greatest of all.

DEATH FOLLOWS WRITER'S VERSE; NEWS ON HEELS OF LAST LETTER

Author's Friend Reads Lines; Then Wire Brings Grief

LOS ANGELES, March 2.—Those who saw Lucretia Del Valle as she portrayed the leading part in "The Mission Play" might have noted a slight increase in the intensity of her emotional scenes and a trace of sadness even in her happiest moments.

Between the acts Miss Del Valle held in her trembling hands a tear-stained paper that seemed to her almost like a message from the tomb of one who had been to her all that true friendship implies.

On the paper was written a verse in her hand and received in a letter a few days ago. Beside the letter was a telegram announcing the death of the writer of the verse and stating that the signature was the last to be penned by the author of the lines, which were as follows:

MEMORIES OF
LUCRETIA DEL VALLE
I saw you move out of the shadowed wing,
And beauty seemed to fill the very air.
Roses and lilies seemed to blossom there.
Joying my senses; then it seemed like spring.
For as you spoke, such music rose and fell,
As birds at dawn make in the nestling trees.
Sweet, long cadences of bright melody.
Or like the note of a far silver bell.
Oh, never was silence started from its sleep
By tones more sweetly tuneful and forlorn.
So I have heard hastened with thee to mourn,
And with thee all thy sacred vigil keep:
For none who heard thee ever can forget
The weeping accents of thy fond regret.

At the bottom of the page was written "With love," and then the signature, "Ada Iddings, Fort Houston, Tex., Feb. 19, 1915."

The telegram was from Captain H. D. Thomson, surgeon U. S. Army, Fort Houston, Texas, announcing the death of his wife Thursday night at 10 o'clock. At almost the exact hour Miss Del Valle had sent a telegram acknowledging the receipt of the letter containing the verse and inquiring after the health of the sender, Mrs. Thomson, whose nom de plume was Ada Iddings.

Two years ago Mrs. Thomson, who had been a frequent contributor to magazines, was a visitor in Los Angeles and attended the Mission Play. The writer and the actress became warm friends.

After Mrs. Thomson's return to Texas she composed a number of verses in honor of Miss Del Valle, and the two were in frequent correspondence.

ANNE MORGAN ON NATION'S 'HIGH SOCIETY'

NEW YORK, Mar. 2.—"Wasters and tramps coexist only in the social city. The foundations of our real society rest upon money, and it is only the workers who attain wealth."

Miss Anne Morgan has voiced these sentiments, commenting on the declaration of President Wilson that "high society" were those who had stopped working.

"Take the Carnegies and Fricks, for instance," continued Miss Morgan. "They have enormous riches, and it was amassed by prodigious labor. Those who rule the destinies of the social as well as the business world, society is not depending upon ancestral traditions or ancient lineage. People who tell you of the great ancestors they have are usually inactive in the life things of the age."

"Society and its ramifications depend upon the expenditure of money for their existence. Who have the necessary means to spend upon entertainments and the social functions that annually give employment to thousands of tradesmen? It is the men of money. Could the business world for one minute exist on the money that is placed in circulation by the thousands of men who compose the working element? By no means. Business is kept going by thousands of dollars that are spent by high society. That is an item that some statisticians would do well to investigate."

SOCIETY NOT PERMANENT.

"Society is not permanent. When it was twenty years old and went about to all the functions of the day, the visiting lists contained names that are unheard now. Those lists have dropped out of the race of life from one cause or another and their places have been taken by others, just as important, just as cultured and just as capable socially as their predecessors. Activity is the watchword of the times and all the family glory in the world will not help you if you cannot keep abreast of every phase of progress."

"Being in society also imposes obligations, and I am proud to say that the vast majority of Americans who are members of the 'smart set' are living up to those obligations. These obligations consist in spreading among our less fortunate fellow countrymen culture, learning, of all kinds and knowledge of the useful art and craft."

"Aiders are found in every condition of life. I object to the word class. There is only one class, and it consists of the folk who work and achieve. Every young man or woman in the United States begins life with the desire to excel in their respective lines and make a fortune. There is one great axiom of life that we should all learn, and that is that every cent of money a person has must be earned, either by himself or herself or their relatives."

CONTRADICTS PRESIDENT.

"President Wilson says the world could dispense with 'high society' and the world would never miss it. He is very wrong. The wealth of society is responsible for the successful careers of many artists, singers, musicians and professional folk as well. Whose names adorn the lists of patronesses at all the great charitable affairs? These of course are society. They are proving themselves hard workers this winter when there are more charitable affairs than ever before in the history of the country."

"I can give you the names of scores of society women in New York who devote many hours a week to working for the various interests that tend to uplift and better the conditions of our citizens. They do not make it a fad, but really toil, and the spirit of self-sacrifice is manifest to a most unusual degree among them."

WOMAN TO TESTIFY.

"COUNT FETTERED" SAVED.
SAN FRANCISCO, Mar. 2.—Rudolph Fettered De Tolna, better known as the "Count Fettered," did not get his citizenship papers yesterday, nor did he even get them. The state has been set in Judge Morgan's court at 10 a. m. to hear the count's petition when William F. Humphrey of Lent & Humphrey, attorneys for the count, telephoned that that was a terribly early hour to appear in court and a continuance was granted until 2 p. m.

LUCRETIA DEL VALLE, HEROINE OF 'THE MISSION PLAY,' WHO PERFORMED DESPITE RECEIPT OF DEATH MESSAGE.

At 2 o'clock G. A. Crutchfield, United States naturalization commissioner; Charles Kauffman and Gus Schike were there. Also the judge. They all waited. At 2:15 p. m. the court told Clerk Goddard to go on a still hunt for the petitioner and his counsel.

Clerk Goddard found them all in earnest consultation behind the elevator shaft down the hall. The count, his wife, who was formerly Miss Alice Wetherbee of New York, and Attorneys Lent and Humphrey were present. Finally they reached a decision and Attorney Humphrey strode into court and asked for a continuance of one month. Asked by the court for his reasons, he read the following cablegram:

"London, February 19.

"Testify willingly. "STONE"

Attorney Humphrey stated this cablegram had been received just prior to coming to court; that "Stone" was a woman who had seen the count's original citizenship papers and that she would make a deposition to that effect if the federal authorities would stipulate. If not, the woman was willing to come to San Francisco and give her testimony. The count claims he obtained his citizenship papers in this city in 1909, just before the big fire. All the local records were destroyed in the conflagration. He wants them restored.

GIRL GETS LETTER FROM

AVIATOR PETERMAN.
SAN FRANCISCO, Mar. 2.—Aviator Elias Christofferson in the role of postman flying out to sea to deliver a letter to a fair passenger on the liner Wilhelm, made the arrival of the Matsun ship from Honolulu yesterday an interesting affair.

The letter was addressed to Miss Isabel Chase of Burlingame, and Landing Tevis, also a member of the smart set of the peninsula district, was the author. The aviator-postman arose from the beach just after the steamer had plucked through the last corner of the breaking bar and passed over the vessel near Mile Rock.

The letter with a weight attached was dropped, but the judgment of the birdman was in error and the misfire fell a few yards from the ship.

Tevis had prepared for such an emergency by penning several missives, so Christofferson made another try.

The second attempt was successful, and as the hydroplane returned to shore, Miss Chase proceeded to read the contents of the letter. She refused to exhibit the precious bit of paper.

"Mr. Tevis chose to welcome us back home by this method," she explained.

Miss Chase, who has been visiting the peninsula for a few weeks during the winter, was accompanied by the Misses C. de Guisne.

DIVORCED AFTER 49 YEARS OF MARRIAGE.
MARTINEZ, Mar. 2.—Judge R. H. Latimer has granted a final decree of divorce to Matilda Henderson, owner of the Ferndale Springs after forty-nine years of wedded life, from James Henderson, a mining man. The couple were married in Oakland in 1866. Failure to provide was the ground alleged in the divorce.

QUICK WEDDING FOR BEAUTIFUL DIVORCEE.
SAN FRANCISCO, Mar. 2.—"Half the fun of being married is spoiled by the fuss of the ceremony and the agony of waits. None of that for me!"

And who should speak with greater authority on subjects matrimonial than the beautiful Mrs. Agnes Smith Haversdale-Shanley, twice divorced and now about to marry Russell V. Luther, who has

A Sure Way to End Dandruff

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it; then you destroy it entirely. To do this just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night, when retiring, use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger-tips.

By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it. No matter how much dandruff you may have, you will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.—Adv.

POWNEES GLOVES

The retailer does not make the gloves he sells.

Like you who buy them, he depends chiefly on the reputation of the maker for good value.

Thus, his own reputation is involved.

Most dealers who cherish their own reputation welcome the opportunity of depending on the Pownes reputation.

They take no chances.

Neither do you.

Greatest of All Human Blessings

The most wonderful thing in the world is love expressed in the helpless infant.

And among those aids and comforts for expectant mothers is the well known "Mother's Friend."

This is an external application to enable the abdominal muscles to become more pliant, to expand naturally without undue pain from the strain upon cords and ligaments.

Applied as directed upon these muscles involved it soothes the fine network of nerves with which all the muscles are supplied. Thus a great share of the pains and aches that tend to upbraid the period of expectancy passed in comfort. There is no question but what such relief has a marked influence upon the general health of the mother.

Information is given to inexperienced mothers. It is how to use "Mother's Friend" and how to avoid causing breast.

200 SOLDIERS
DROWNED BY
ZAPATAObregon Force, Sent Into a Water Main, Is Trapped.

By Associated Press.

MEXICO CITY, March 3.—Two hundred men of General Obregon's command were drowned in the water main leading out to the suburban sources of Mexico City's water supply in a recent attempt to get to the rear of the Zapatista forces.

When the Zapatistas were compelled to evacuate the capital a few weeks ago they retired to the suburb of Xochimilco, and seized the sources of the city's water supply, making the capital dependent on artesian wells and a small reservoir in a park near Chapultepec castle. The unfished sewers, due to the fact that a scarcity of water made it unwise to utilize for anything than drinking purposes, seriously menaced the health of the city.

General Obregon made many attempts to recapture the main sources of the water supply in the old Indian town of Xochimilco, but all of these were repulsed by Zapatista men.

A daring raid was finally decided upon, for which General Obregon detached 200 of his men. He ordered them to drop into the mains which had long been dry and to attempt to travel through them to an opening at the rear of Zapata's main position. A spy informed the latter general of the ruse and after the men had been allowed to travel some distance in the mains the full force of the water was turned on, drowning the invading force to a man.

Suburbanites, who number nearly a quarter of a million people, are seeking lodgment in the city with the result that provisions are still more scarce and high priced than they have been. During the fighting in the suburbs between the forces of Zapata and the Carranza men the modern system of electric car lines which links the capital to its six principal suburban towns has literally been shot to pieces. The suburbanites are thus cut off from their business in the city and are also in danger if they remain at home. The fighting has been of the most indefinite character, with the contending forces occupying and recouping villages at intervals sometimes as shortly separated as the rising and the setting of one sun.

The difficulty the soldiers had in distinguishing friend from foe is illustrated by a recent incident in the suburb of Coyocacan. A party of Carranza men who had dismounted in the main plaza encountered some longhairs who were not recognized as Zapatistas. A friendly conversation was commenced and continued until some one suspected the identity of the longhairs and challenged them. The answer rang back "Viva Zapata." With that rifles were thrust into play and the plaza was strewn with dead from both sides. Reinforcements arriving for the Carranza men, the Zapatistas were finally driven to the woods.

Spirits Invoked in Rumble's Defense

OROVILLE, Mar. 3.—That he lost his memory, and did not remember signing an option on his mining holdings until the spirit of his dead relatives reminded him of it is the declaration of George W. Rumble, prospector, now facing trial on a charge of perjury. Two very material witnesses also declare that they saw him sign, and these are testifying against him.

The trial follows an attempt of Rumble to have Dr. Barton Pitts and a mining engineer arrested on a charge of stealing gravel from his mine. Pitts declared that they had paid for the purchase of Rumble's holdings, but not being satisfied with the gravel offered for assay by the latter, secretly took a sample, which they assayed by their own expert. They were dismissed when it was found that Rumble's gravel was worthless.

Pitts then preferred charges of perjury based on Rumble's denial that he signed over an option on his land. Rumble says that he signed, forgot it, and was reminded by the spirits of his act. A decision will be reached by Justice of the Peace Parks this week.

TO PACIFY RENEGADE PIUTES

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—Brigadier-General Scott, chief of staff of the army, left today for Utah, to attempt a peaceful settlement with the recalcitrant Piute Indians.

General Scott has a long record, not only as an Indian fighter, but also as a mediator among the Indians, whose dialects he speaks and whose habits he knows thoroughly. War department officials say he has more influence with the Indians of the West than any other white man. About a year ago he brought the recalcitrant Navajos into camp without bloodshed.

After conferences today between officials of the war department, the department of justice and the interior department, it was decided to ask General Scott to see if he could not bring the renegade band of Piutes to give up their leader, who is charged with murder. Reports from Bluff county, in Utah, where the band is entrenched, says the roads are very bad and the country is covered with deep snow. It may take General Scott and his party three days to reach the Indians after they leave the railroad.

MORE THAN GRIND
TO CIVIL SERVICEJohn W. Rogers Gives Oakland Employees Rules for Success.

Civil service, in its relation to the employees of the municipality, as seen from the point of view of the employees themselves, was outlined last night at a meeting of the Civil Service Employees' Association of Oakland, held at the city hall. The meeting was addressed by John W. Rogers, president of the San Francisco Civil Service Employees' Association, and also clerk of the San Francisco board of supervisors, and by Edward M. Coffey, secretary of the San Francisco association.

That the organization of employees can be made of social and educational value as well as a means of protection of the interests of the employees against either arbitrary action by a hostile civil service board or by politicians, was indicated in the address made by Rogers. He said in part:

"Don't limit the work of your organization merely to the grind and routine. Give yourselves recreation and social, community life. That will help you in many ways to become happier and easier co-workers."

"Hold meetings at which members may listen to lectures on matters of general interest. Make your organization an asset to you and not merely a piece of machinery."

"Don't allow politics to enter into your association. That is surely disruptive to the body or bring its usefulness to an end."

In response to a question from W. H. Dwyer, president of the Oakland association, Rogers went into detail about the use of the organization in its relation to the civil service board.

"If one of your members has been unjustly treated," Rogers explained, "it is within the power of your executive committee to employ an attorney to represent the member before the civil service board."

"The same committee can keep in touch with the business transacted by the board and can act in an advisory capacity, helping to keep the rules and regulations of the board from assuming too hard and theoretical a form and bringing them into harmony with the real needs of the employees."

"What the civil service board can do is only half of civil service. Perhaps not the most important half. That rests with the employees themselves. A real co-operation between intelligent employees and a good civil service board would bring about the best conditions. Conflict means trouble."

"The San Francisco board furnishes our committee with reports of its activities and with information as to what is to be taken up later. We can thus help in the formulation of civil service and the best results are thus attained."

Coffey spoke about the same phases of the subject. The report of the Oakland association reorganization committee was filed and will be considered at a later meeting.

DIVORCE DELAYED, BUT SHE MAY WED AGAIN

Mrs. Leola Hamilton Griggs was forced to wait three days before being freed from John Worth Griggs of Oakland, as the result of an oversight on the part of the court clerks in San Francisco, who neglected to enter the findings in her interlocutory decree from her husband, obtained by her a year ago.

It is rumored that her wedding will be an event with Albert F. Kitchener, a San Francisco merchant, as the other contracting party.

Mrs. Griggs's final decree is due today.

Mrs. Griggs met Kitchener in the home of a friend, at a dinner, two months ago, and the announcement of their engagement is expected soon. Even after the Griggses separated, the husband professed love for his wife, declaring that she cared more for the gay life, while he was a "home body and just an old plunger." The wife obtained her divorce on the grounds of failure to provide.

INQUIRY CLUB HEARS
CANDIDATE LE BALLISTER

Fred W. Le Ballister, candidate for nomination at the April primaries for Commissioner No. 1, addressed a meeting of the Inquiry club held in the courtroom of Judge Aaron Turner last evening. He spoke of the problems confronting a candidate for office in the city of Oakland, laying particular stress on the necessity of keeping down the cost of city building and at the same time carrying on constructive work. Mr. E. Whitmore is president and J. F. Feely, secretary of the club, which has been organized to inquire into the administration of municipal affairs.

Le Ballister has been invited to speak at the meeting of the Oakland center of the California Civic League at the Hotel Oakland on Friday afternoon, March 12. He will speak on next Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Boge, 3025 Camp street, and on Thursday evening will address the members of the Steinyway Terrace Municipal League at the home of Mrs. Charles A. Braslin, 2100 Forty-first avenue.

COMMISSION HEARS
LOCAL WITNESSESH. Engelbright Testifies at In-way Unmerging.

H. Engelbright of Oakland, master car-repairer of the Southern Pacific Company, was the principal witness of the morning before the investigating commission in San Francisco, which is considering the unmerging of the Central and Southern Pacific Railways.

Declaring that during all of his years of experience the equipment of the company has been alike by the S. P., the Central Pacific, and the subsidiary concerns, Engelbright was positive that no distinction had been made between the several companies. So far as he knew, he said, they were apparently one concern.

This afternoon will probably see on the witness stand Julius Kruttschnitt, chairman of the Board of Directors of the S. P. Company. He was an interested listener during the morning session.

Shot by Brother, Lad
Keeps Silence Two Days

By Associated Press.

KENOSHA, Wis., March 3.—An X-ray photograph has told a story that 10-year-old Stephen Stee had refused to tell for two days, even when he felt near death with a bullet in his head. Stephen, since Sunday, had lain in bed, but said he just felt tired.

The picture showed a bullet embedded in the brain, and the boy admitted he had been shot by his 7-year-old brother while the two were playing with a revolver they had taken from their father's room.

The boy's hair had clogged the blood and prevented the wound being seen. The brothers had agreed not to tell, he said.

GAS FUMES; NOTED STAGE
DRIVER OVERCOME.Aged Indian Character Victim of Gas Fumes; Noted Stage
Driver Overcome.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 3.—After plotting Mrs. Jessie Noble, a picture-essence Indian character of Santa Rosa, 70 years old, to San Francisco to see the Panama-Pacific Exposition, Jefferson Barrett, a stage driver of the same city, attempted to rescue her from a gas-filled room at the Brooklyn Hotel this morning and almost lost his life. He was too late, for Mrs. Noble lay cold in death. Barrett himself was overcome before he reached the couch on which his aged friend lay and fell unconscious to the floor of the room where he remained until another lodger detected the odor of fumes and ready hands rescued him. Only yesterday Barrett, a native of Humboldt county and one of the best known characters in Santa Rosa, escorted Mrs. Noble, who is the mother of eleven children, to the exposition city. They registered at the Brooklyn, 369 First street, and were assigned rooms 121 and 123, separated by a narrow hallway on the second floor. Although Barrett was still under the influence of the gas at noon and was unable to give much of an explanation, it seems that he feared something was wrong or perhaps noted the gas fumes and hurried to Mrs. Noble's apartment. On entering he tried to rescue her, but failed.

At 10:30 o'clock Mrs. J. Clawson, another lodger, was directed to the room and both Mrs. Noble and Barrett were dragged forth in the hallway. When Steward James O'Dea of the Harbor hospital arrived the aged woman was dead.

The death of Mrs. Noble, who was a widow, was very evidently accidental. It is believed that the woman, unfamiliar with the use of gas, blew out the flame.

LONGINGS ARE CRUSHED.
"My days and nights were one long protest. Every natural longing was crushed, and my nose was held to the grindstone of parochial duty and 'wifely loyalty.'"

"There were promises, in response to my pleas, of being a 'brother,' but they were soon broken. If thoughts killed, we would both have been dead long ago."

"As the children grew older I suffered for them. They had no chance in that atmosphere of intolerance, insincerity and ugliness. Finally I got a chance to teach in a private school in a distant city, and I took the children and went away for good. After a couple of years I came out here to keep house for a relative who has a ranch. I have never asked help from my father because my self-respect would not permit me to accept money from a man to whom I could render no service."

Mrs. Atwood went on to recite in her letter that she had heard nothing in two years from her husband, who abandoned the military and is teaching music in an Eastern city.

FAMED DECORATION OF IRON CROSS ON DISPLAY

The Iron Cross, famed mark of bravery in the Fatherland, and greatest honor a German soldier may achieve, has arrived in Oakland. For several days it will be exhibited, at the pleasure of the German government, to familiarize all Americans with the decoration and its meaning. The different forms of the decoration, from the small cross conferred on soldiers at the front, to the great cross bestowed on heroes in Franco-Prussian war, are being shown through the German Consul in San Francisco, who will send the crosses to each city in California for a brief time. The crosses are now being shown by G. W. Heinz at 1217 E. Market.

Reports of the big session of the National Association of School Superintendents, recently held in Cincinnati, were made last night before the Board of Education by Superintendent of Schools A. C. Joseph Swain, president of Swarthmore College, Charles E. Chadsey, the superintendent of schools at Detroit, David S. Snedden, commissioner of education in Massachusetts, and other prominent educators, also were heard.

The board last night accepted plans for the Lakeview School annex, as drawn by Miss Julia Morgan, architect. L. B. Avery, assistant superintendent of schools, and C. T. Taylor, the school building superintendent, recommended this action. Bills were passed on.

CHEROKEE IS NOMINATED
REGISTER OF TREASURYBy Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, March 3.—President Wilson nominated Houston R. Teehee of Tahlequah, Okla., today, to be register of the treasury, to succeed Caho Parker, who recently became commissioner of the Five Civilized Tribes. Teehee is a Cherokee Indian, now attorney for that tribe in Oklahoma. He was formerly a member of the lower House of Oklahoma legislators. Once Tribe of Jomeveret, W. Va., was nominated for auditor of the Interior Department to succeed Robert W. Woodley, who was nominated yesterday to be director of the mint.GRAHAM, RECONCILIATION EX-PERT, REVERSES HIS USUAL PRACTICE.

Taking the advice of Superior Judge Graham, Mrs. Louise Atwood, 5529 Randolph avenue, is about to get a divorce from her husband, an Eastern music teacher and former minister of the Gospel, on the grounds of failure to provide, superinduced by incompatibility.

Mrs. Atwood, who came to California with her 13-year-old son some time ago and took up teaching to support herself, recently planned to go to New South Wales and enter a colonization project. She discovered that she would be unable to take up government land in Australia in her own name without a divorce judgment against her husband, so she wrote a letter to Judge Graham in San Francisco asking for advice.

Judge Graham, who has a wide reputation as a reconciler of quarrelsome couples, reversed his usual procedure in such an affair and advised Mrs. Atwood to obtain a divorce. Reasons for the advice were found in the complaint of Mrs. Atwood, who complained as follows against her husband:

"I did not wish this marriage, but I had been taught to obey."

"His spiritual office was but an affair of the intellect. At heart he was most decidedly of the flesh."

"I soon lost all respect for him and the doctrines which he preached. I came to despise him and myself for the insincerity of our relations. The hypocrisy of being forced to work for the propagating of teachings which were to me meaningless and the upbuilding of an institution in which I had no faith, made me heartless."

"My days and nights were one long protest. Every natural longing was crushed, and my nose was held to the grindstone of parochial duty and 'wifely loyalty.'"

"There were promises, in response to my pleas, of being a 'brother,' but they were soon broken. If thoughts killed, we would both have been dead long ago."

"As the children grew older I suffered for them. They had no chance in that atmosphere of intolerance, insincerity and ugliness. Finally I got a chance to teach in a private school in a distant city, and I took the children and went away for good. After a couple of years I came out here to keep house for a relative who has a ranch. I have never asked help from my father because my self-respect would not permit me to accept money from a man to whom I could render no service."

Mrs. Atwood went on to recite in her letter that she had heard nothing in two years from her husband, who abandoned the military and is teaching music in an Eastern city.

JUDGE REVERSES ADVICE.
"Here are no disgraceful reasons," Mrs. Atwood wrote to Judge Graham, "but a condition which to my feminine mind is far worse than unfaithfulness, and that is a warping of temperaments, which defeats what the constitution of the United States defines as a primal right of the individual—the right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

Judge Graham was not impressed with the letter that she sent for Mrs. Atwood and convinced her she would be justified in starting divorce proceedings from her husband on the ground of failure to provide for herself and children.

"There are some cases in which reconciliation between warring temperaments is hopeless," said Judge Graham yesterday. "And this is certainly one of them. For this reason I did not adhere to my usual rule, and advised Mrs. Atwood to bring suit for divorce."

"MY SISTER," SHE SAYS.
When seen this morning, Mrs. Atwood declared that her sister was the person from whom Judge Graham had received the letter, but she denied emphatically that any action had been taken, and said that the move was not even contemplated.

"My sister is at present in Chicago," she declared, "and although she has had trouble with her husband, she does not even contemplate starting divorce proceedings. The letter was authentic enough, but the matter ends there. As for my being concerned in it, that is absolute foolishness."

Mrs. Atwood also stated that she did not wish to discuss the matter and was content with being connected with it in the light that she is now. She refused to disclose her sister's name and stated that she preferred to let the affair stand as it is.

Mrs. Atwood is at present residing in East Oakland with her three children, and a man, whose identity she did not disclose, and whom the neighbors think is her brother. She would not state how she became possessed with such an intimate knowledge of the contents of the letter sent to Judge Graham by her sister.

TRIPPLET NOMINATION
MEETS WITH CRITICISM

WASHINGTON, March 3.—President Wilson's action yesterday in announcing the nomination of Oscar A. Trippett of Los Angeles to be United States judge for the Southern California district, in opposition to Milton K. Young, also of Los Angeles, whose name was suggested by Senator-elect J. D. Phelan and Representatives Kettner and Church, is looked upon as a rebuke to Phelan for the trouble he has brought the administration, in his San Joaquin investigation.

The President's announcement was met with a storm of criticism from the California delegates. Trippett is a well-known Southern Californian, having lived in San Diego for several years, and later in Los Angeles. He was a California delegate to the convention which nominated Bryan in 1896.

CLAY at 14TH and 15THJUSTICE LEAVES FINE;
JUDGE WASTE PROTESTS

Effort to prove to the justice court in Chico that a recent decision of the supreme court upholds the state automobile speed laws in preference to laws enacted by rural communities, will be made by Superior Judge Waste of Alameda county as the result of insistence on the part of the Chico authorities that William Helphinstine was illegally fined for speeding. Helphinstine is a cousin of Judge Waste, and several weeks ago he was arrested while in the jurist's company, near Chico. Judge Waste protested that the fine was improper, as they were not violating the state laws.

The justice court held that they had violated the county speed law, and tried the fine. It is probable that the fine will have to be remitted.

A recent test case was carried into the supreme court by this county by District Attorney Hynes, following an extensive on the part of that official in Butte county. With other local men, Hynes was arrested and fined for "speeding" through Cloverdale. Also the higher court decided that municipal speed laws are a-burdensome to state laws.

BOYS BROTHERS

Social Needs of Alameda Boys Considered Favorably at Fraternal Dinner.

ALAMEDA, March 2.—That a social center in Alameda is vitally necessary for the welfare of the boys and girls and that such a center, with complete extracurricular outfit, and probably other attractions, should be installed immediately was the idea expressed by many prominent speakers at the dinner given at the Pilgrim Brotherhood last evening at the Congregational church.

To illustrate the problem from the side of the church and family, Rev. Dr. Frank John Baker, of the First Methodist church in this city, and principal speaker of the evening, told a narrative of a boy and traced him through the different stages of youth.

The next speaker was Hon. E. K. Taylor, who spoke on the importance of regarding the viewpoint of the boy.

Former Mayor W. J. Nor placed his support to any measure promoted by a committee in charge of the affair.

Kenyon Scudder told many facts about the institutions of reform.

Rev. C. L. Mears outlined previous work done along these lines of establishing a club in other cities.

J. E. Brettwieser, chairman of the committee appointed at a previous meeting, reported that although the committee had not yet formed a definite, the financial situation could easily outline Brettwieser's plan was to establish a moving picture show in the proposed building, and place the boys and girls could be taken to the gymnasium could be equipped and small rooms be set aside for different games." Dr. George Thompson, principal of the Alameda High School, was the next speaker, and with a forceful and enthusiastic talk, told of another plan formulated on these same lines, which had been tried before "but," declared Dr. Thompson, "we should push this issue until we receive results, and not stop until then. It is our conviction that the best handling of the gang spirit is the thing."

J. Sherman McDowell, president of the feature to the town. George W. Scott made a brief appeal for some beginning to take place. On this suggestion, W.

Chairman of the evening, Ernest McCandlish, will appoint a committee from the Congregational church to confer with the other congregational committees from the other churches.

She intends to remain in America until the war ends, or at least until things are more settled in her African home. Miss Sunderman is a representative of the Westminster Guild, an organization of Presbyterians who dwell in the United States. She gave a talk on missionary work in Africa before the congregation of the San Leandro Presbyterian church here Sunday evening.

Every home can have a Pianola

The Stroud $575—

On small payment it will be delivered—
Convenient terms on the balance—
Your present piano taken in exchange

¶ The PIANOLA is not for the rich—it is for every man's home—for your home. The STROUD PIANOLA is today entertaining and brightening thousands of homes.

¶ The STROUD is one of the five PIANOLA PIANOS (made by the Aeolian Company), and contains all the remarkable exclusive and patented features of the higher-priced styles.

¶ The STROUD PIANOLA contains the wonderful METROSTYLE, the device for controlling tempo and imparting the correct interpretation. The device consists of a red line marked on the roll and a movable pointer on the instrument. The marking was made by a master musician as the composition should be played. Simply follow the red line with the Metro-style pointer and, measure by measure, the selection is played with the correct tempo and the proper interpretation.

¶ The STROUD PIANOLA possesses an exceptionally full and melodious tone, a quick and correct action; the case of mahogany or oak is the very latest design. As a PIANO the merits of the STROUD claim the admiration of hundreds of well-known musicians.

HIGHER RENTS TO MEAN MORE TAXES IS WARNING

SAN FRANCISCO, March 3.—The board of supervisors have started an investigation of the raise in rents by owners of apartments and rooming-houses since the opening of the Exposition, with a view of penalizing the gullible landlords through the increase of the valuation of the property on the assessment rolls.

Supervisor McCarthy said rates had been doubled in some instances, and residents given notice to vacate to make room for visitors who are expected to pay the higher rents.

The chief of police and the public welfare committee are gathering the names of the unscrupulous owners and the board threatens to publish the list in addition to raising the assessment.

HOW I DARKENED MY GRAY HAIR

Lady Gives Simple Home Recipe That She Used to Darken Her Gray Hair.

For years I tried to restore my gray hair to its natural color with the prepared dyes and stains, but none of them gave satisfaction and they were all expensive. I finally ran on to a simple recipe which I mixed at home that gives wonderful results. I gave the recipe, which is as follows, to a number of my friends, and they are all delighted with it. To 7 oz. of water add a small box of Barbo Compound, 1 oz. of bay rum and 1/4 oz. of glycerine. Use every other day until the hair becomes the required shade, then every two weeks. It will not only darken the gray hair, but removes dandruff and scalp humors, and acts as a tonic to the hair. It is not sticky or greasy, does not rub off and does not color the scalp. You can prepare it at home at very little expense.—Adv.

STUDENTS DEFY COLLEGE HEAD; DEMAND PROBE

By Associated Press.
SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, March 3.—Dismissal of four professors of the University of Utah and the demolition of the head of the English department without reasons having been made public have resulted at a mass meeting of students in the adoption of resolutions disapproving the action of President J. T. Kingsbury and petitioning the regents to investigate and make public the reasons for the action. About 1000 students joined in the meeting.

Professor G. M. Marshall, head of the English department for more than twenty years, was notified recently that he would be removed as head of the department and retained as an instructor if he desired. The announcement was followed by an announcement that O. J. P. Widson, a professor in the Latter Day Saints High School at Salt Lake City and a bishop of the Mormon church, would be appointed to succeed Marshall.

It was later announced that Dr. A. A. Knowlton, Professor George C. Bing and C. W. Snow would be dropped from the faculty at the end of the year.

COAL MINING SUSPENDED, 12,000 OUT OF WORK

By Associated Press.
WILKESBARRE, Pa., March 3.—Notices that operations have been indefinitely suspended were posted yesterday at all the Delaware and Hudson collieries in this section. About 12,000 men and boys will be thrown out of work by the suspension, which officials of the company said was due to the small demand for coal and to the fact that they have a large quantity in storage.

WHAT'S A JITNEY?

Scotch? Russian? English? But Still He Remains Single, Notwithstanding the Ceremony.

And again—
What is a jitney?
Hundreds of people—some of them reading hundreds of miles from here—are attempting to answer that question, which has been propounded by officers of a local bank, in an endeavor to learn the identity of the little stranger.

The bank officials are no closer to the solution than they were a week ago when they first asked the question. While hundreds of letters have come into their offices, each bearing an answer, so many different explanations and histories are being given that the questioners themselves are now at a loss as to just what is the proper answer.

Many humorous origins are suggested in the letters. In one instance, a loaf of rye bread—Russian—is described as the parent of the metal wheel so many automobile drivers are gathering in. Another informant declares just as positively that the jitney's parentage is vested in a Russian vehicle.

Many countries are named as being the place of its birth. Many insist that it first saw the light of day in the New York ghetto.

Another writer, an Oakland man, is of the opinion that the coin was of French and English birth. This writer is M. D. Galindo, 5041 Telegraph avenue. He says:

"The word 'jitney' is a corruption of the word 'jetton,' which, in turn, is derived from the French 'jeton.'"

"A 'jeton' was a metal counter used in casting accounts, card playing, etc. We are at this time probably indebted to the Cockney-English for the corruption 'jitney,' as applied by some of those East End Londoners to their small change."

That is a sample of many other letters received by the bank officials. In these letters, the word 'jitney' is said to be of seventeenth century English origin; it is said to be an American word, with its birth in the South, among the negroes; a word of the circus, being a part of the slang or patois of circus and traveling carnival employees. One writer declares the word to have been born in New Orleans, while one declares it to have originally meant a Southern negro convict. Others say that it is of Polish, Roman, Slavonian, Serbian or German origin.

SCOTCH COIN?
H. Arthur Lombard, of 1815 McGee avenue, Berkeley, Cal., writes that the word is French and Scotch parentage. Here's his letter:

"Jitney—a combination of two words—Jit-nisey, Jit, from Scottish Jit, meaning deception. Nisey, a French word, meaning simper, a coin in America which the bobbing 'foolish cars' (electric), were so prominent.

"Those who claim the word to be of Russian origin predominate in numbers. Invariably, they declare that a 'jitney' is a small Russian coin, of the value of about five cents in American money. The next in number claim the word to be of Jewish origin.

Dorothy Hoffman, a small dealer into the mysteries of word origin, and who lives at 710 Eighth street, has this to say about the 'jitney':

"In an answer to my request appearing in THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE, I will say that a 'jitney' is the name of a small piece of coin. Used by the Jewish people of Russia. Jitney was used by the Jewish people in cities of Russia for purposes of making small purchases in the stores, or trading on small scales."

Here's what L. E. Chickley, who favors the theory of negro origin, has to say:

"Jitney is a word coined by Southern colored folk for a nickel. The sambo, when told to run an errand, invariably inquires, 'I got a jitney in this, Boss?' In nearly all states south of Illinois, the small boy bases all of his financial reckonings on the word 'jitney,' which, in this definition is correct, will cost you just one hundred jitenys."

Miss Josephine Cahm, 2536 Piedmont avenue, believes in the Russian origin of the word. She says:

"Referring to your ad of THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE, regarding definition of word 'jitney':

"Jitney is a foreign word which originated in Russia, being the name of a small Russian coin. The Russian immigrants who settled in Chicago gave the name 'jitney' to the United States one-cent pieces, representing the smallest coin."

SEEK BROKER ACCUSED OF SUBSTITUTING GEMS

SAN FRANCISCO, March 3.—Detective Fred Krake spent the entire morning today in a search for Harvey W. Peck, a realty broker, of the Monarch building, accused by Mrs. Emma Meinhardt, of the Alexandria Apartments, of obtaining a $750 ring and attempting cleverly to substitute an imitation in its place.

Krake looked for Peck in his usual haunts last night, but was unable to locate him. He started out bright and early today armed with a warrant issued by Police Judge Oppenheim. Three pigeon's blood rubies surrounded with a cluster of small diamonds were mounted on an old gold ring, valued as an heirloom, which Mrs. Meinhardt declared Peck admired. He begged her, she says, to allow him to show it to a friend, a connoisseur on jewels. She consented to give it into his custody for a short time and avers she has never been able to get it back. Twice the warrant and bond clerk issued citations against Peck and on the last occasion he was much alarmed.

"He came to me," said Mrs. Meinhardt, "and told me he had had the gold band changed on the ring and the jewels reset by a jewelry artist. He then presented me with the ring. I didn't like its looks, took it to an expert and was told that it was worth about $24, being a cheap imitation of the original. Realizing that I had been the victim of a substitution trick, I decided to get a warrant for Peck's arrest."

$4500 FOR FRIENDSHIP

Miss Erna Huelsman will inherit the small estate left by the late August Ulschinger, who designated her as his "sole and true friend" in his will, which has been filed in the Superior Court. The estate consists of $4500 in real and $280 in personal property, also some bills receivable.

"CONFIDENCE" IS TOPIC

Rev. Roy Campbell of Oakland spoke on the anti-capital punishment movement, his theme being "The Growing Confidence in Human Nature" at the regular luncheon of the League for Home Rule in Taxation today in San Francisco.

Men who pay on a $500,000 assessment are in favor of the proposition. Men who pay on $500 a year against them, can you figure it out? It voted, it will cost one an average of $90 a year—the other an average of 9 cents.

In either case would you tell the good name of the county at the price?

MAN MARRIES TO AMUSE FRIENDS

Scotch? Russian? English? But Still He Remains Single, Notwithstanding the Ceremony.

First to amaze more than one hundred of his friends by suddenly and unexpectedly marrying, to all appearances, before their eyes, and then equally to shock them by proving that he was still single, was the dramatic scheme by which Arthur Mitchell, Oakland real estate man, made a party at his home last evening rival a moving picture film.

Before the guests arrived at their homes, Mitchell, at the Raymond, Alice street, they thought they were to enjoy a bachelor's hospitality. When they came in they discovered themselves in the presence of such decorations as could only betoken a wedding. At one end of the room was erected a bower of artificial roses and the bush that presides at such solemn events as marriages seemed to pervade the apartment.

When the throng was sufficiently started and certain of what was to come, a wedding procession slowly came, a wedding procession slowly into the rooms and in the floral bower Mitchell went through the ceremony with Miss Ruth Gedney of Elko, Nev. At the last "Amen" the surprised friends had just recovered sufficiently to rush forward with congratulations and to hunt for white ribbon and old shoes, when the minister jerked a wig off his head. Instead of a divine authority to unite in holy matrimony it was T. A. Stetson. Readjustment to the idea that Mitchell was still unmarried and that an elaborate play had been staged created a second sensation.

Dramatic detail in the mock marriage was carefully carried out. Attending Miss Gedney were a maid of honor and six bridesmaids, each carrying a picturesque bouquet, while the "groom" had for a best man his brother, M. C. Mitchell.

The bridesmaids who took part in the affair were Miss Henrietta Pratt, Miss Cecile Garnick, Miss Ruth Owen, Miss Caroline Limes, Miss Dorothy Hutchins and Miss Marvel Wood. The maid of honor was Miss Jane Ogilvie.

The illusion of the ingenious party was completed with a gay midnight wedding breakfast and an informal dance.

DEFECTIVE FUSE FOILS ATTEMPT TO BLOW MINE

By Associated Press.
COBALT, Ont., March 3.—When the teamster for a local mine yesterday visited the company's dynamite magazine he found the heavy door battered in and a length of burned fuse lying upon the floor with one end carefully fixed under nearly three tons of dynamite. A detonation cap was in place over the end. Fortunately, the fuse had burned itself out owing to a defect. There is no clue as to whether the attempt was that of an alien enemy or of someone bearing a grudge against the mining company.

HOCKING JURY DISAGREES

After six hours' deliberation a jury in Superior Judge Ogden's court late last night failed to agree as to the guilt or innocence of E. J. Hocking, who was tried on a charge of alleged embezzlement of funds from the Panama Tea Company, of which he was formerly manager.

BATHER SCALDED TO DEATH

By Associated Press.
LOS ANGELES, March 3.—Overcome by lack of oxygen, which had been exhausted by his bathroom heater, Bert Babby fell into a tub into which he had turned boiling water today. He was scalded to death.

SUSPECTED FORGER CAUGHT AFTER CHASE

SAN FRANCISCO, March 3.—In an exciting chase wherein a taxicab was pressed into service as a last resort, Mrs. Ida Hughes, owner of the Parkside Creamery Company on Haight street, captured Richard W. Ewing, who she says drew a forged check against her account in the Anglo-California Bank last October.

Then she hailed a taxicab on Fillmore street, followed him and turned him over to Policeman E. M. Mitchell. According to the woman, the check was for $750. ## "LID" IS CLAMPED ON GRANT AVENUE ORATORS

SAN FRANCISCO, March 3.—Orders prohibiting public speaking and street assemblies in Grant avenue were read to the midnight watch at police headquarters last night after having been issued by Captain of Police Henry Gleason of the Central station.

Grant avenue for years has been the nightly meeting place of motley gatherings, being the public forum that succeeded the sandlot rendezvous of Denis Kearney and other agitators.

Nine out of ten arguments against the Exposition bonds are based on error or deliberate mis-statement. If you want to give the reputation of your county a fair show, ask some one who knows the facts.
